Day#1: Northern Italy Bound

Wednesday: October 17th, 2018

In conjunction with AAA Travel (Ithaca, NY), Keyrow Tours is pleased to make all flight arrangements, including primary flights originating from anywhere in the United States. As a group we will depart the United States from the east coast and fly direct into Venice's Marco Polo Airport, Italy.

The international flight is typically eight and one-half hours long, and arrival time on the following day is mid-morning.

Transportation to and from your primary airport of departure is each person's responsibility.

“What is the fatal charm of Italy? What do we find there that can be found nowhere else? I believe it is a certain permission to be human, which other places, other countries, lost long ago.”

Day #2: Venetian Wonders”

Thursday: October 18th, 2018

Morning arrival at Marco Polo Airport, Venice Italy

After clearing passport control and collecting our luggage, both minivans and private boats will carry us to our hotel destination.

Check in

Pranzo! (Light lunch included)

A.) Departure for St. Mark’s Square

St. Mark’s Square is the center-stage of Venetian life, and is crowned by St. Mark’s Basilica. While it is large in size and grandeur, the Piazza San Marco maintains a feeling of coziness with its cafes, dueling musicians, and children of all ages chasing pigeons. While we are in Piazza San Marco we will see...

B.) St. Mark’s Basilica – exterior

This is a real blend of world culture: Byzantine mosaics, Romanesque archways, French Gothic pinnacles, Muslim-shaped onion domes, columns from Alexandria, capitals from Sicily, and carvings from Constantinople.

C.) The Clock Tower (Torre dell’ Orologio)

Two bronze African Muslims stand high above the tower, with their mechanical mallets that swing every hour. The clock dial shows 24 hours, and above the dial is the world’s first digital clock that changes every 5 minutes.

D.) The Campanile

Originally dating back to the 10th century, this is Venice’s original lighthouse and bell tower. In 1902 it toppled to the center of the square but was rebuilt 10 years later.

E.) The Bridge of Sighs

The Venetian government meted out its justice from the Doge’s Palace. Prisoners that were sentenced crossed this covered bridge to the prison: A final view of sunny, glorious Venice! Tradition says that you could hear the prisoners sighing along the way...

F.) St. Mark’s Basilica: church, cathedral, and basilica in one!

One of Europe’s most celebrated churches and the final resting place of St. Mark the Evangelist. Its riot of domes, columns, statues, gold mosaics, colored marble and oriental treasures will bedazzle our eyes.

G.) The Doge’s Palace – exterior

Originally built in the 9th century, today the palace is a fusion of Italian Gothic with an Islamic flair. Each Doge (or duke) left his mark on history by supplying new decor for this awe-inspiring work of architecture.

Day #3 “Island Hopping: Adriatic Style!”

Friday: October 19th, 2018

Continental breakfast

A.) Morning excursion to Venice’s Pescheria (Seafood Market)

Venice's Pescheria (pronounced "Peskaria"), the Rialto Fish Market, is an authentic food market where you'll find restaurant chefs and homemakers selecting from an array of freshly-caught fish, crustaceans, and other seafood every morning except Monday. There's no better show in town: fishermen unload crates of fish from their barges; vendors hawk their wares; chefs examine the daily supply of fish, crustaceans, and bivalves; delivery men push handcarts laden with fruit and vegetables... it is a feast for the eyes!

B.) Morning departure for island-hopping, Venetian style

Enjoy a trip to the island of Murano. A private chartered boat will take us from our hotel to a Venetian glass factory for a tour and glass blowing demonstration. Afterward, Paolo will lead an excursion to the Island of Burano. Burano is a colorful Adriatic gem that features panoramic views of the Venetian seacoast. Visit the shops or sit at a café, and watch the world go by...

PRANZO (Lunch included) on the Island of Burano

Located on the water in a secluded neighborhood, Ristorante Da Forner will provide an exceptional meal that highlights the local bounty from both land and sea.

C.) Return to Venice for free time

Venice is beauty itself...the kind of place to enjoy by walking around, visiting shops and soaking in the atmosphere. Take a tour of the Doge's Palace. Enjoy a gondola ride. Explore hidden corners in this water city that the locals call La Serenissima (“The Most Serene Place”).

Day #4: Bella Bologna

Saturday: October 20th, 2018

Continental breakfast

Early morning train departure for Bologna

Bologna is the capital city of the Emilia-Romagna Region: a cosmopolitan college town with rich history, art, cuisine, music, and culture. It was one of the first settlements in Italy dating back to at least one millennium before Jesus... first settled by the Etruscans, then the Celts, and then the Romans. By the Middle Ages it was home to the oldest university in the world; the University of Bologna was founded in 1088 and today hosts thousands of students who enrich the social and cultural life of the city. Famous for its towers and lengthy porticoes, Bologna has a well-preserved historical center. It is also one of the wealthiest cities in Italy, often ranking as one of the top cities in terms of quality of life in the country.

Arrival to hotel

Time to unpack and get settled

Piazza Maggiore

Bologna's primary outdoor plaza was built in the 13th century as a place where people gathered and the market was held. The piazza continues to serve this function as the preferred meeting place of the Bolognese who gather in the shadow of the statue of Neptune with the Basilica of San Petronio (dedicated to the city's patron saint) in the background. Piazza Maggiore is surrounded by the most important buildings of the medieval city. The oldest is Palazzo del Podestà, dating back to 1200 as the palace of government. Opposite this building is the famous unfinished facade of the Basilica of San Petronio: an example of Italian Gothic architecture begun at the end of the 14th century and never completed. In or around the neighborhood of Piazza Maggiore we will also visit:

- A.) The Basilica San Petronio
- B.) The Fountain of Neptune
- C.) The World War II Memorial

Pranzo! (Light lunch included)

- D.) The University of Bologna's "Anatomical Theater"
Dedicated to the study of anatomy... offering public autopsies in the 17th century
- E.) Santa Maria della Vita
Visit what the locals call "The Screaming Marys"...the largest collection of terracotta sculptures of the Italian Renaissance depicting the death of Jesus.
- F.) The Two Leaning Towers of Bologna
- G.) The Basilica of Santo Stefano

Cena! (Group dinner)

"All journeys have destinations of which the traveler is unaware." ~ Martin Buber

Day #5: "Di-Vine Wanderings"

Sunday: October 21st, 2018

Continental breakfast

Morning departure for the Emilia–Romagna countryside

Parmigiano Reggiano Cheese Factory

With a private coach we will leave Bologna and visit a famous Parmigiano Reggiano Cheese Farm. During our visit we will discover the various steps in the production of this world famous cheese, and in the farm's aging rooms we will sample some of its products.

Balsamic Vinegar Production

From the cheese farm we will travel to a private Traditional Balsamic Vinegar Production located in an amazing villa where we will taste 12, 25, 30 and 45 year old vinegars. The original traditional product (Aceto Balsamico Tradizionale), made from a reduction of cooked white Trebbiano grape juice and not a vinegar in the usual sense, has been made in Modena and Reggio Emilia since the Middle Ages; the production of balsamic vinegar is mentioned in a document dated 1046. Today, traditional balsamic vinegar is highly valued by chefs and gourmet food lovers. The word balsamico (from Latin balsamum, and from the Greek balsamon) means "balsam-like" in the sense of "restorative" or "curative".

Prosciutto Production

Pranzo! (Lunch included)

We will dine well at a rustic countryside trattoria... a perfect end to a day filled with the very best of local food culture.

Back to Bologna

Day#6: “Firenze: A Feast for the Senses”

Monday: October 22nd, 2018

Tuscany's Heart of the Italian Renaissance...

Continental breakfast

Morning Train Departure for Florence

Pranzo! (Optional light lunch)

For those who have never been to Florence before, “follow Paolo” to the following sites. If you have been to Florence with Keyrow Tours in the past, enjoy free time and explore places such as San Lorenzo’s outdoor shopping market, the Boboli Gardens, the Pitti Palace, Florence’s famous farmer’s market and more...

A.) The Ponte Vecchio

Ponte Vecchio literally means, “The Old Bridge.” This historic bridge that crosses the Arno River is laden with gold and diamond shops. Conveniently located just around the corner from our hotel, shoppers...this one’s for you!

B.) Piazza Signoria

This is Florence’s central square. See the Palazzo Signoria (Florence’s City Hall since the reign of the Medicis), the outdoor Loggia which contains ancient Roman and Greek statuary, as well as Cellini’s famous bronze of Persius holding Medusa’s severed head.

C.) The Mercato Nuovo

Florence has two excellent outdoor markets, and the Mercato Nuovo is very close to our hotel. Beautiful leather goods: jackets, wallets, purses, gloves, and more. It’s fun to wander through, even if you’re not interested in buying things.

D.) Santa Croce Church

This wonderful medieval church is the final resting-place of Michelangelo, Machiavelli, Galileo, Rossini, and many others.

Dinner in a private Tuscan villa with gelato making demonstration

Tonight we dine outside the city of Florence in a private Tuscan villa. Paolo has been friends with Roberto’s family for many years, and they are pleased to host our party. Brace yourself for an Italian feast that features family-style homemade pasta, local meats, potatoes and vegetables roasted in an outdoor oven. Roberto will make his famous gelato before our eyes in this Tuscan villa’s own gelato studio...

Continental breakfast and the Tuscan hilltop villages of:

Early morning at the Uffizi Museum

Unguided time at the Uffizi Gallery...one of the most famous museums in the world, given the abundance of unique artwork and masterpieces conserved within its walls. Located in the heart of Florence just five minutes from our hotel, the Uffizi hosts works of art by great Italian artists such as Botticelli, Giotto, Cimabue, Michelangelo and Raffaele, just to name a few of the most famous. The Uffizi, together with the Vatican Museum in Rome, are the two most visited museums in Italy.

Day#8: “Cinque Terre Bound!”

Wednesday: October 24th, 2018

Continental breakfast

Morning minivan departure for Cinque Terre

A private minivan will take us from Florence to Cinque Terre's village of Monterosso al Mare. The Cinque Terre was recognized in 1997 as a Unesco World Heritage site, and exists as a national park and protected marine area. Truly “off the beaten path,” this portion of the Italian Riviera is situated in the Ligurian region. “Cinque Terre” literally means “Five Lands,” and is composed of these five towns: Monterosso, Vernazza, Corniglia, Manarola, and Riomaggiore. Over the centuries, people have carefully built terraces on the rugged, steep landscape that overlooks the sea. Paths, trains and boats connect the villages, and for the most part cars for cannot reach them from the outside.

Pranzo! (Lunch included)

Local Specialties include Accuighe (ah-CHOO-gay) anchovies (small bluefish), which are served fresh rather than canned. Tegame alla Vernazza is a typical main course in Vernazza: anchovies, potatoes, tomatoes, white wine, oil, and herbs. Pansotti are ravioli with ricotta and spinach, often served with a hazelnut or walnut sauce...delightful and filling. This region is also the birthplace of pesto. Basil, which loves the temperate Ligurian climate, is ground with cheese (half Parmigiano cow cheese and half pecorino sheep cheese), garlic, olive oil, and pine nuts, and then poured over pasta. Try it on the local trofie (made of flour with a bit of potato, designed specifically for pesto). Paolo and Heather also like pesto lasagna. Farinata: This humble fried bread snack — made from chickpea meal, water, oil, and pepper — is baked on a copper tray in a wood-burning stove. Finally, for a sweet dessert wine, the local sciaccetrà wine (pronounced SHOCK-A-TRA) is worth the splurge. Aged sciaccetrà is made from near-raisins, and the word means “push and pull” — push in lots of grapes, pull out the best wine!

Boat or train to Riomaggiore and Manarola

Transportation throughout our time in the Cinque Terre will be dependent on weather and seasonal schedules. If the weather is favorable, we will take public boats as much as possible.

Riomaggiore and the Via Del Amore to Manarola

Riomaggiore is the first of the five villages, situated in the valley of the river “Rivus Maior” (after which the village is named). An old story tells that the historical roots of this village date back to 8th century, when a group of Greek refugees found shelter here. The most beautiful and famous part of Riomaggiore is the “Via dell’Amore” (“Lover’s Way”) – an easy walking path along the sea leading to the nearby village of Manarola providing breathtaking views.

Manarola may be the oldest town in the Cinque Terre, with the cornerstone of the Church of San Lorenzo dating back to 1338. The name “Manarola” is probably a dialectical evolution of the Latin, “magna rota”. In the Manarolese dialect this was changed to “magna roea” which means “large wheel”, in reference to the mill wheel in town. With bright and colorful houses, Manarola's primary industries have traditionally been fishing and wine-making (especially the local wine called Sciacchetrà). Wander through terraced vineyards and view the village's “largest nativity set in the world”.

Day #9: “Life on the Ligurian Sea”

Thursday: October 25th, 2018

Continental Breakfast

Optional Morning Hike: Corniglia to Vernazza

For those who wish to hike, enjoy a trek from the village of Corniglia to Vernazza, a 2.5 hour hike. This trail in Cinque Terre is an old goat path that links the villages together. Difficulty level: 3 out of 4. Put your “billy goat” legs on and go take a hike!

Or for those not interested in hiking, explore the area, hit the shops and soak in the atmosphere of the Ligurian Sea. Both hikers and non-hikers will meet in Vernazza at a designated time.

Lunch (on your own in Vernazza)

Back to Monterosso for Beach time and Free Afternoon

The ancient, original centre of Monterosso lies on the summit of the hill of San Cristoforo, which separates the present village into two. During the 12th and 13th century there was an increase in population and families began to move down the slope of the hill, setting up house on the banks of the stream called “Branco” which is now covered. This part of the village, known as Monterosso Vecchio (Old Monterosso), has remained practically intact from that time period. Monterosso's beach is the longest of the Cinque Terre coast and the “carruggi” (small streets) of Old Monterosso are picturesque gems from a different time period...

Day#10: “The Lake Escape”

Friday: October 26th, 2018

Continental breakfast

Morning minivan departure to Lake Como

We will take a private minivan from Monterosso to the village of Varenna. A PRIVATE VILLA on the shores of Lake Como will be our enchanting home for two nights. Each room has a full view of Lake Como and is rich in charm and personality.

Pranzo (Lunch on your own)

Private boat tour of the lake with tour of the Villa Balbianello

Como is a lake of glacial origin in Lombardy, Italy. It has an area of 146 km, making it the third largest lake in Italy. At over 400 m (1320 ft) deep, it is one of the deepest lakes in Europe. The bottom of the lake is more than 1300 feet deep. Lake Como is widely regarded as one of the most beautiful lakes in Italy.

The lake is shaped much like the inverted character "Y". The northern branch begins at the town of Colico, while the towns of Como and Lecco sit at the ends of the southwestern and southeastern branches respectively. The small towns of Bellagio, Menaggio, and Varenna are situated at the intersection of the three branches of the lake: a triangular boat service operates among them. Many celebrities have or had homes on the shores of Lake Como... Matthew Bellamy, Madonna, George Clooney, Gianni Versace, Sylvester Stallone, Richard Branson, and Ben Spies.

Day#11: “Bellagio and Beyond”

Saturday: October 27th, 2018

Continental breakfast

Optional morning hike to Varenna’s Castle Vezio

Late morning departure for Bellagio and Villa Melzi’s botanical gardens

Bellagio is a comune (municipality) in the Italian region of Lombardy, located on Lake Como. It has long been famous for its setting at the intersection of the three branches of the Y-shaped lake, which is also known as Lario. Bellagio is situated at the tip of the peninsula separating the lake’s two southern arms, with the Alps visible across the lake to the north. The medium temperature during winter is never below 6-7 C°, while during summer it is around 25-30 C°, mitigated during the afternoon by the characteristic brevia, the gentle breeze of the Lake Como.

Pranzo! (Lunch on your own)

Free afternoon to explore Varenna

Lake Como has been a popular retreat for aristocrats and wealthy people since Roman times, and a popular tourist attraction with many artistic and cultural gems. It has many villas and palaces (such as Villa Olmo, Villa Serbelloni, and Villa Carlotta). Lake Como is widely regarded as one of the most beautiful lakes in Italy. After visiting Bellagio, explore our home-village of Varenna and enjoy the tranquility of the lake and Alps...
