Day #3: “Medieval Time Travel in Siena”

Thursday: September 6th, 2018

Italian Breakfast

Siena

The historic center of Siena has been declared by UNESCO a World Heritage Site. It is one of the nation's most visited attractions, and is famous for its cuisine, art, museums, medieval cityscape and the Palio, a horse race that is held twice a year.

Siena, like other Tuscan hill towns, was first settled in the time of the Etruscans (c. 900–400 BC).

According to local legend, Siena was founded by Senius and Aschius, two sons of Remus and thus the nephews of Romulus, after whom Rome was named. Legend has it that after their father was murdered by Romulus, they fled Rome, taking with them the statue of the she-wolf suckling the infants and appropriating that symbol for the town.

The most famous daughter of this important medieval city is Saint Catherine of Siena: a medieval mystic, poet and feminist-figure of her time. We will learn about Saint Catherine over lunch... and why she referred to God as an “inebriated lover.” Cheers!

Guided Tour

Pranzo! (Lunch on your own)

Personal time in Siena

Return to our villa

Day’s recap and Cena! (Dinner!)

Day#4: “Under the Tuscan Sun”

Friday: September 7th, 2018

Italian Breakfast

Morning departure for Monteriggioni

Monteriggioni is located in the Province of Siena. The town is architecturally and culturally significant: As a medieval walled town, it is referenced in Dante Alighieri's Divine Comedy. Monteriggioni was built by the Siene in 1214-1219 as a front line in their wars against Florence. Its circular walls are crowned with fourteen towers. Standing frozen in time, this little gem is a real showcase of medieval architecture and life.

Explore the villages of Castellina in Chianti and Greve in Chianti , with plenty of free time to wander and shop....

Visit to a Pecorino cheese farm with lunch and wine

Return to our villa

Day's Recap

Cena!* (Dinner)

*“As with circling round of turrets, Monteriggioni crowns his walls;
E'en thus the shore, encompassing the abyss,
Was turreted with giants, half their length
Uprearing, horrible, whom Jove from heaven
Yet threatens, when his muttering thunder rolls.”*

~ Dante Alighieri, Hell, canto XXXI, lines 40-45

Day#5: “Noble Wine and Nibbles”: Montepulciano and Pienza

Saturday: September 8th, 2018

Italian Breakfast

Departure for Montepulciano

The Medieval and Renaissance village of Montepulciano is one of the most attractive hills towns in Tuscany. It is built on the ridge of Monte Poliziano, and its main street stretches for 11.5 kilometers from the Porta al Prato to the Piazza Grande at the top of the hill. The cathedral was built in 1619, and the castle of Montepulciano was first mentioned as a fortified center in the year 715. Of course Montepulciano is famous for not just one, but two excellent wines: Vino Nobile di Montepulciano and Rosso di Montepulciano. For those who partake in the fruit of the vine, you will have the opportunity to try both!

Pienza

Nestled between the towns of Montepulciano and Montalcino, this small village was rebuilt by Pope Pius II who was born there, as the ideal Renaissance city and as a retreat for the Pope from Rome. It produces some of the best Pecorino cheese in the world which we will sample! Pienza is known for its annual Pecorino tossing contest. Pass the Pecorino, per favore!

This volcanic island is the largest of three islands on the Bay of Naples. It is an intriguing collection of spa towns, gardens, forests, white beaches, vineyards and picturesque Mediterranean Sea views. Ischia attracts only a small fraction of the foreign tourists who are usually bound for Capri. Don’t tell them that the beaches and food are much better on Ischia!

Eating is one of the island's great pleasures; while seafood is an obvious specialty, Ischia is also famed for its rabbit, bred on inland farms. Another local specialty is rucolino, a green, liquorice-flavoured liqueur made from arugula (rocket) leaves

Stroll through the “new town”

Cena! (Group Dinner) and day’s recap

Day #8: "Ischia's Offerings"

Tuesday: September 11th, 2018

Italian Breakfast

Morning island tour by private boat and afternoon at the Negombo Hydrothermal Resort

The village and vistas of San Angelo

Pranzo! (Lunch on your own, at a local seafood shack!)

An afternoon at the Negombo Hydrothermal Resort in S. Montano Bay

A unique opportunity to relax in the European tradition. Since the days of the Etruscans, thermal waters have been used by priests in religious rites. As the Romans spread through Italy, they popularized thermalism with the creation of numerous thermal centers throughout the peninsula. Thanks to its volcanic origins, the island of Ischia has one of the richest and most varied hydrothermal resources in the world, with over 100 thermal springs. Negombo was conceived to combine the extraordinary therapeutic properties of its thermal waters with a healthy, pleasurable experience. Hit the beach, swim in hot thermal mineral water pools and live in the moment.

“When the moon hits your eye like a big pizza pie, that's amore!”

The natives of Naples claim that their city is the original home to authentic pizza. The world's first pizzeria opened its doors in Naples and still remains in business today. Using the simplest of ingredients, Pizza Margherita is a triumph of Neapolitan cuisine... the humble ingredients of fresh San Marzano pomodori (tomatoes), fresh aromatic basil and mozzarella (di bufala) on char-marked dough is all that is required to make this highly-praised and delicious pizza. The colors of red, white, and green represent the official colors of the Italian flag. Fresh, and bubbly-hot straight out of a wood-fired oven... pizza in Naples might change your life!
